"Legal and Arbitration Proceedings

During the last 12 months there have been no governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings which may have, or have had in the past, significant effects on the financial position or profitability of CSi, and CSi is not aware of any such proceedings being either pending or threatened, except as disclosed below:

1. European Commission Statement of Objections re CDS

In July 2013, the Directorate General for Competition of the European Commission ("DG Comp") issued a Statement of Objections ("SO") to various entities of thirteen CDS dealer banks, certain market entities and the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. ("ISDA") in relation to its investigation into possible violations of competition law by certain CDS market participants. Certain Credit Suisse entities were among the named bank entities. The SO marks the commencement of enforcement proceedings in respect of what DG Comp alleges were unlawful attempts to prevent the development of exchange traded platforms for CDS between 2006 and 2009.

2. US Antitrust Class Action re CDS

Certain Credit Suisse entities, as well as other banks, have been named in civil litigation in the US, currently pending in the US District Court for the Southern District of New York. In August 2015, Credit Suisse and the class action plaintiffs reached an agreement in principle to settle the action. The settlement is subject to the execution of formal settlement documentation and court approval. Further, Credit Suisse (USA), Inc. has received civil investigative demands from the United States Department of Justice.

3. Rosserlane and Swinbrook v Credit Suisse International

CSi is the defendant in English court litigation brought by Rosserlane Consultants Limited and Swinbrook Developments Limited (the "claimants"). The litigation relates to the forced sale by CSi in 2008 of Caspian Energy Group LP ("CEG"), the vehicle through which the claimants held a 51 per cent. stake in the Kyurovdag oil and gas field in Azerbaijan. CEG was sold for USD 245m following two unsuccessful M&A processes. The claimants allege that CEG should have been sold for at least USD 700m. CSi is vigorously defending the claims, which it believes are without merit. The trial commenced in October 2014 and on 20 February 2015 the case was dismissed and judgment given in favour of CSi. The claimants are now appealing the judgment.

4. CSi is defending a EUR 170 million clawback claim brought by the Winding Up Committee ("WUC") of Kaupthing Bank hf in the District Court of Reykjavik, Iceland. The claim relates to the issuance of ten credit linked notes issued in 2008, which the WUC is seeking to challenge under various provisions of Icelandic insolvency law in order to claw back funds paid to CSi. The WUC is also claiming significant penalty interest under Icelandic law. CSi argues that the purchase of the credit linked notes is governed by English law, which does not provide a legal basis for such clawback actions. In October 2014, the Court of the European Free Trade Association States issued a non-binding decision supporting the Issuer's position that the governing law of the transactions is relevant. Separately, CSi is pursuing a claim for USD 226 million in the District Court of Reykjavik, Iceland against Kaupthing Bank hf's WUC in order to enforce certain security rights arising under a 2007 structured trade. CSi acquired the security rights following Kaupthing Bank hf's insolvency in 2008. A trial of both matters is currently expected to take place in 2017.

5. CSi is the defendant in German court litigation brought by Stadtwerke Munchen GmbH, a German water utility company (the "claimant"). The litigation relates to a series of interest rate swaps entered into between 2008 and 2012. The claimant alleges breach of an advisory duty to provide both investor and investment-specific advice, including in particular a duty to disclose the initial mark-to-market value of the trades at inception. The claimant seeks damages of EUR 12 million, repayment of EUR 130 million of collateral held by CSi and release from all future obligations under the trades. A preliminary hearing has been rescheduled to February 2016, with further hearing dates expected in 2016/2017.

Provision for litigation is disclosed in Note 19 to the interim consolidated financial statements on page 21 of the CSi Interim Report (page 23 of the PDF)."

8. Amendments to the section headed "General Information" in respect of CS in each Prospectus
